THU MARCH 15-WED MARCH 21

WOMEN'S HISTORY

SHE PERSISTED (AND MADE GREAT ART)

WEDNESDAY: Did you know March is Women's History Month? Inspiring Tampa film producer Renee Warmack does. That's why she's transforming super-hip Seminole Heights gathering spot American Legion Post 111 for The Art of Women: A Celebration of Empowerment, a multimedia art exhibit and evening of music, dancing, networking and festivity. Eight female artists, partnerships and collectives will provide the creativity; you provide your respect and support for women in the arts. 6918 N. Florida Ave., Tampa. 7 p.m. $20; $30, door (cash only). theartofwomen.eventbrite.com.

SHABBAT

CHALLAH HOLY

FRIDAY LATE-NIGHT: Boy, does GASP! performer Brian Feldman have a treat for Tampa's Wellswood neighborhood. On the heels of his Gasp 4 Hours performance (see p. 31), he will gather with fans at a table outside a Tampa Wawa for the inaugural Wawa Shabbawa. Guests are asked to BYOY (Bring Your Own Yarmulke), as Shabbat blessings will be recited. Expect LED candles, grape juice and soft pretzels in lieu of matches, wine and challah. Wawa Shabbawa is not affiliated with or sponsored by Wawa — but maybe it should be? Wawa, 1760 W. Hillsborough Ave., Tampa, 11 p.m.-1 a.m. Find RSVP link at local.cltampa.com. —Meaghan Habuda

MUSICAL

AND I...EEE...EYE...

OPENS TUESDAY: Canadian R&B singer and Broadway diva Deborah Cox takes the lead for this onstage adaptation of Lawrence Kasdan's 1992 Oscar-nominated film, The Bodyguard. We know the story. We know the songs. We know the score is basically a Whitney Houston retrospective, including "Greatest Love of All" and "How Will I Know." But we don't know if you're allowed to sing along when Cox tries to hit that high note Whitney made famous nearly three decades ago. Straz Center, 1010 N. WC MacInnes Place, Tampa. Tues.-Thurs., 7:30 p.m.; Fri.-Sat., 2 p.m. & 8 p.m.; and Sun., 2 p.m. & 7:30 p.m. $40-$90. 813-229-STAR. —Ray Roa
